

ISRAELS VENNER – OG UVENNER

Dag J. Høgetveit; 4. oktober 2024

Setesdølen melder 3. oktober, under overskriften "Om presidentval i USA, og Israel på Evje bedehus", om et kommende møte avholdt av Israels Venner, indre Agder, den 10 oktober, hvor førsteamanuensis Alf Tomas Tønnessen (UiA) deltar. "Han skal under møtet sjå nærare på årets valgkamp i USA, og kva for konskvensar utfallet kan tenkast å få for Israel."

"USA blir et slags diktatur hvis Donald Trump blir president", er overskriften på en Aftenposten-kronikk av nevnte Tønnessen (Ph.D. – Nord-Amerikakunnskap) 7. mars;<sup>1</sup> en kronikk med gjennomgående NRK-karakter. "Det blir spesielt viktig for Trump å ha en lydige justisminister. Dette vil kunne undergrave Justisdepartementets uavhengighet fra Det hvite hus"; "Styresettet er truet hvis en hevngjerrig Trump blir president på nytt. Politiske motstandere vil bli etterforsket."

(Når ble justisdepartementet uavhengig av regjeringssjefen? Finnes evt. reelt grunnlag for å 'etterforske politiske motstandere' – ikke for "hevngjerrig", men fordi noen evt. blir å måtte stå til ansvar overfor Loven?)

Historiker Victor Davis Hanson (Hoover Inst., Stanford Univ.) 13. mai:<sup>2</sup> "Given these egregious violations of the law, abject political bias, conflicts of interest, asymmetrical application of the law, and manipulations of the statutes of limitations, the public has slowly grown incensed. They rightly conclude that the lawfare is a left-wing coordinated effort to destroy candidate Trump by exhausting him physically and psychologically in five separate cases at the height of the campaign season, bankrupting him with what will likely be $1 billion in legal fees and fines, silencing him with gag orders, defaming him with salacious and sensational but irrelevant court testimonies, and keeping him off the campaign trail.

And now? The sheer preposterousness has resulted in two unexpected developments. One, the more the left tries to subvert the legal system to emasculate Trump, the more the latter wins popularity, especially in traditionally non-Republican constituencies, even as Biden slumps in the polls. And two, the four criminal cases are starting to fall apart because of their sheer ridiculousness and abject bias."

Når intet annet nytter, tilkommer senere også flere oppsett for fysisk likvidering.

Men vedrørende Israel og "kva for konskvensar [val-]utfallet kan tenkast å få": Omsider ble det – under President Trump – ambassade-flytting til Jerusalem og dertil tiltagende fred og fordragelighet. "-Donald Trump, to his credit, showed us with Soleimani and with ISIS – he destroyed them, and Iran did not do anything, and there would be no way Hamas was doing this [Oct. 7.] between 2017 and January of 21 – they had a small war, but they never did anything like this. And I don't think Vladimir Putin would have gone into Ukraine, and I don't think that China would have sent a balloon ... he was
